 Department Commander
 Thank you for your Leadership!

“LIGHTING THE WAY”. Have we done our job in Lighting the Way for our veterans? Do our non-renewed comrades know why we need them? Do they know about the many benefits of being a member of the largest family organization ever? It’s not too late to enlighten them.

Last month the week of Armed Forces Day there was a welcome dinner at Plainfield Post for National Commander Denice Rohan. A wonderful time was had by all. That week we attended the Great Lakes graduation, then the annual dinner on Armed Forces Day at Yorkville. National Commander Rohan was key note speaker. The whole weeks event was outstanding. Great job on every ones efforts.

I hope all of the posts had a wonderful Memorial Day Program. It was a time to remember and to honor, all of our fallen hero’s. We should always remember all those American Soldiers who gave made the supreme sacrifice while defending our country’s freedom.

June is going to a very busy month for the American Legion Family. We have all the Division Conventions, Boys State, Girls State, Police School, and Special Olympics. Many of these programs need our help, please help where you can.

I want to THANK everybody that helped get membership. The Post, District, and Division Commanders tell me they have tried their best to get Members for the state of Illinois. I want to thank everybody for getting those members signed back up for 2018. I also want to especially thank all the Membership Committees for what they did for their Districts.

Even though June 22nd membership cutoff date is right around the corner I ask for you not to give up on trying to get just one more new member or that non-renewal.

I’m proud of what we’ve done, I had hoped to have done better but if you can say you tried your best that’s all I asked.

The 100th American Legion Family Convention is coming up on July 11-15, 2018. It will be held in Springfield at the Bank of Springfield Convention Center. There is a lot happening at this convention. To find out what is going on, go to American Legion Department of Illinois website click on Department Convention then click on convention agenda. We are hoping that you will be there for the First Legion Family Convention The American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, and the Sons of the American Legion.

I have had a wonderful year this year, even though I didn’t get everything accomplished that I wanted to. I want to thank Mike Carter for helping me this year, he was a very good Sr. Vice and will make a great Commander next year.

I want to thank all the Office staff in Bloomington, Marty, Christy, Terry Lynn, Marsha, Chad, Dee, Cheryl, Joy, David and Dorothy. The Chicago office Wayne, Toy, Marlene, Ray also Bill in Marion for what they do for The American Legion. They just don’t get enough thanks for what they do and what they have to put up with. THANK YOU ALL!

From The Desk of Department Sr. Vice Commander Micheal Carder

TEAM ILLINOIS at this writing we have less than 3 weeks until the cutoff date June 22, 2018 / Close of Books. The department is at 94.72% in membership. We are in a sprint to reach our goal of 100%.

Letters and phone calls worked well until NOW. We must reach out to those blue caps who have not renewed.

Now it really is Bloody Knuckle Time, lets get out and start Knocking for Membership.

Remind them that their membership provides them discounts that can save them on car rental, home services, electronics and technology, financial and insurance services, travel and lodging, and so much more.

Many probably do not know that The American Legion provides vital support to lobbying efforts and veterans services...sit down with your comrade and share with them why The American Legion is the greatest and strongest organization. Invite them to your post meetings and community events.

We must continue to work for our veterans and their families.

Where else can you spend time with others who understand where you’ve been, and where you are, as a veteran?

Membership is the heart of our organization.

So I ask again start Knocking for Membership and keep knocking. I have plenty of band-aids for your knuckles.

All I ask is that you get the job done.

I look forward to seeing everyone at our 100th American Legion Department of Illinois Convention.

Bloody Knuckle Time

From The Desk of Department Auxiliary President Marsha Haag

“Striving For Gold For Our Veterans”

in 2018 has been a great success story. Our members have met and exceeded their goals. The Department of Illinois athletes and trainees have worked hard to serve veterans, communities and our children. The “Finish Line” is in sight. We have a few short weeks to accomplish what we’ve set out to do. Yes, we have membership to collect, fundraisers and events to host, and countless other things. I’ve encouraged our members to seek the members who have not renewed yet and remind them of the person they are or would be honoring for their service. The reason they joined to begin with. We should focus on the members we have, keep them active but not overwhelmed. We can do great things with the members on record. I’ve been at 2 Division meetings in the last couple weeks. They have reported over 600 members lost to death. My goodness, what a loss. These ladies have been our mentors so now it is our turn, to seek and mentor new members.

Our reports have been compiled and submitted to National; it is very impressive and we all realize, not everyone has told us what they have done. This probably rings true for the American Legion and the Sons of the American Legion.

Special Olympics is complete. Our members have done a fantastic job making this weekend a great success. We know from past events the popcicles and watermelon are a highlight.

ALA Illini Girls State is around the corner as of this writing. Last I knew, we are expecting around 425 citizens. I can’t wait!!

I will be finished serving as Department President on July 14th. This has been a wonderful opportunity, a huge learning experience and very humbling to follow in the footsteps of great leadership. (Past Department Presidents). Unfortunately we have had the passing of 3 Past Department Presidents this year: Renae Paoella, Ramona Hendricks, and Doris Schultz.

July 2017 to July 2018 will be a time in my life I’ll never forget. It has allowed me the privilege to serve with 2 great commanders, Bob and Paul. Each of these leaders have greeted their membership and led well. We have all encouraged the members and they have continued to work for the best interest of our organization. I have enjoyed travelling with them to various meetings and events and it shows we are truly The American Legion Family. Many times we found each other at opposite areas of the state but all our members could be connected with us via Facebook pages. Thank you Chad Woodburn for posting my pictures which I could not get to go onto the ALA page. Thank you to Department of Illinois American Legion staff for your kindness when I needed something.

I look forward to seeing you at the Department Convention. Come hear The American Legion Family successes, connect with friends, meet the scholarship winners, and see the poppy poster winners. We will have time to pay tribute to the fallen from our ranks and you can enjoy the sights and pride of the Legion Riders.

See you in Springfield!!

From The Desk of Detachment Commander Paul A. Hayse

“RETAIN, RECRUIT, REMEMBER”

Well, one more year in the books and time to nominate and elect officers for 2018-2019.

The end of convention means new leaders taking command of commissions, committees, chairs, and squadrons.

Your certification papers should be filled out and mailed with your consolidated report form. Your voice can be heard in Washington with you returning the CRF. Also, you should have returned your individual recruitment award papers with the names of new recruits for your free pin. The pin is a conversation starter as well as incentive for other people to get out and recruit.

Convention this year is in Springfield, July 11th-15th at the BOS Center. This is the first year the whole family will be meeting together. I would urge all to make plans to attend.

I would like to take time out and thank all the people who have inspired me throughout this past year. Without their guidance and leadership, I could not have had a wonderful year as I have had. The memories and lessons, the new friends and family that I have been blessed to inherit I will keep for the rest of my life.

Thank you for letting me serve.

Did You Know?

Office: 312-980-4266 Email: Raymond.Toczec@va.gov

That as Chairman of the 1st Division VA&R committee I am required to make a report each year to that Division. I thought it would be informative to our members who live outside the 1st Division to see what we have accomplished up north. Here is my report:

It has been a pleasure and honor to serve the First Division as your representative on the VA&R Commission for the 2017-2018 year as well as one of the two Division service officers. I attended two VA&R meetings which were held at our Bloomington headquarters as well as the Washington D.C. conference. New VA benefit law changes continue to be signed into law and every effort was made to get this info to the Division level. From there it is my hope that it filters down to the District and Post levels. Many methods were used; my monthly articles in the Department and Division newsletters, oral presentations before the Division meetings and having handouts available at those meetings. I also hosted several Power Point presentations at local posts, senior centers, local libraries and Hines VA hospital. The presentations covered the entire spectrum of VA benefits from headstones to home loans and pensions to hospital care. I hope to do more of these in the fall if appointed to this position again.

At last count Posts in the 1st Division will have 34 resolutions submitted to our Department convention. We will once again be # 1 in resolution submission. One that was submitted two years ago regarding the Veterans Administration Bronze Medallion for marking private headstones was accepted and Congress passed Public Law 114-315. Veterans who died prior to 1990 and purchased their own headstone can now have the family order this Medallion. I did for my dad's headstone and put it on myself. It's an easy process.

I have been the editor of a monthly article in the Department newsletter entitled "Did You Know" for over eleven years now and have received many favorable comments. You can view these articles (back one year) on the Department web site www.illegion.org. On the home page click on "News and Events" and on the dropdown menu click on "latest news". Under Quick Links then click on Dept. Newsletters and you can view my last twelve articles. Feel free to copy and paste these articles into your district or post newsletters. Just give credit to Department if you do. I have also cohosted a monthly BINGO game at VA Jesse Brown hospital. Post 183, 777, and 806 were cosponsors. These games are held at 2:00 on the first Monday of the month. Veteran patients come down from the wards and outpatient clinics to play. We average 30-40 veterans per game and $200+ is given out in prizes and raffle gifts each month. Donations for this are welcome. Prior to and just after the games I answer questions from the audience on their Veterans Administration benefits. A few claims were started this way.

The VA&R Director of the Chicago office, Wayne Macejak, has again had a cope with several personnel changes. Al Pizarro, former 9th District Commander left as one of our Service Officers and Carolina Contreras returned to replace him. She is fluent in Spanish and will also help female vets with their special claims e.g. Military Sexual Trauma. Our office now has walk-in hours 9-12:00 Monday thru Thursday. At other times veterans may call to make an appointment. Telephone hours are Monday through Friday from 8:00 to 4:00 with 24/7 voicemail after that. The number is 312-980-4266.

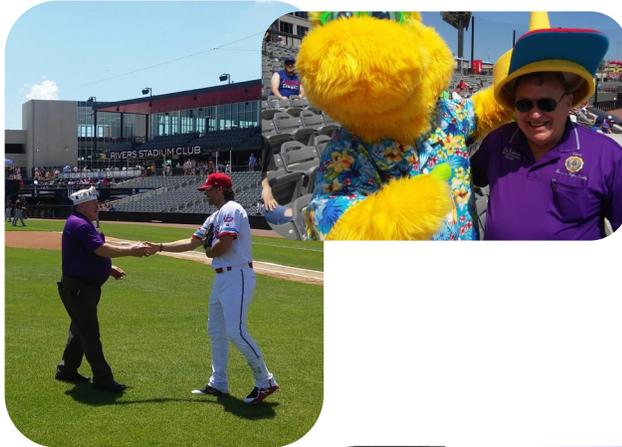

To be continued in the next newsletter...

YOUTH PROGRAM DATES TO REMEMBER

Thank you Commander For a Great Year!

When I arrived at boys state, I did not know what to expect. I was thrown into a brand new environment that I had never experienced before with other people that didn't know each other and where almost as confused as I was. In the short time i have been here I have ran for many positions and have achieved the status of state representative, and was it fun? I wish that this program lasted a month. The amount of fun I have had speaking with other candidates for each position is immeasurable, and the comradery that we have formed in this short time is unmatched to any relationships I have formed in the past. I wasn't expecting to make as many friends as I did, and i didn't expect to make the position I did, but again I wish that this program lasted a month.

Eric Schultz, Streator, IL—Hayes County

Welcome to the official blog of the 83rd session of American Legion Premier Boys State at Eastern Illinois University! This Boys State session began on Saturday, June 9, and the will conclude on Friday, June 15. We are only three days into the session, but so much has already happened. Every participant of boys state, A.K.A. Citizens, have been grouped into counties along with cities within those counties at arrival. The counties include Conatser, Geiger, Savage, Stelle, Gleason, Hayes, Keller, and Kennedy County. On Sunday, each city elected officials such as Mayor, Treasurer, and Aldermen. Today, we held our county level elections, and soon, we will hold elections at the state level. In just these short three days, Citizens have been given the opportunity to publicly speak in many new settings, run for all kinds of elected positions, and attend seminars on a wide variety of political topics.

Throughout the week, this blog will keep you up to date on what's happening at Boys State. Blog posts will range from in depth looks at clubs and activities available here, updates on county and state-level elections, and even interviews with past and present Boys State participants. We wish all citizens the best of luck this week and don't forget to have fun!

Colby Phipps — Savage County, Brown City — Chrisman, Illinois

We all have our own obstacles in life. We still have our whole life ahead of us. There will be opposition, but that shouldn't stop us from trying to accomplish what we want to do or just something. Nothing in life happens without doing anything, so don't stop because you are afraid of what others will think or say, do what you enjoy. Get out of your comfort zone a little bit and try new things, but don't try too hard to be what you are not. Try to become a better person and learn new things.

Illinois Boys State gives us all multiple opportunities to try new things. It teaches us new things that we probably wouldn't have learned on our own. This is an opportunity to make new friends, meet new people, and an opportunity to find out what new things you might enjoy. If you do what you want to do and people judge, so be it, don't let them ruin your experience here at Boys State. It is a harsh truth of life that you will be judged for whatever you do, but persevere through all of the obstacles here and in your everyday life.

Though it may seem untrue but overcoming all of the obstacles and opposition will help to build your character and personality. So to get the most out of this event don't let others influence you negatively. I hope everyone is taking the chance to put themselves out there this week!

Trent Niemann—Hillsboro, IL- Kennedy County, Johnson City

As I walked into this program I had no idea what I should expect. To be quite honest, I was a little bit fearful of what this week might turn out to be. However, after being immersed in what Boy's State had to offer, I realized that this program is actually a very good experience and could teach me a lot of things that are practical for being an informed voter or even a politician. Also, I realized that there was a large amount of interesting people here that would make amazing friends. With these things being said, there are a couple things that I do not particularly enjoy about Boy's State. For example, there are many fun things that can be done at this program but, there is not an exceptional amount of free time where we can just take a break and sit down. I feel that with all of the things that we do there needs to be a time to rest. All in all, I feel that Boy's State is a wonderful opportunity where you can meet lots of new people and learn hands on about the Illinois government.

Flag symbolizes America's hopes

Denise H. Rohan, National Commander

Dear American Legion Family and Friends,

While Americans are divided on many political issues, most people – especially those in our American Legion Family – hold a special reverence for the flag of our nation.

For the flag does not symbolize perfection but it does conjure images of the hopes and dreams of those who built this country. Whether it's the Apollo 11 crew planting Old Glory on the surface of the moon or New York firefighters raising the flag amidst the rubble of the World Trade Center, the Stars and Stripes make an emphatic statement about American determination and exceptionalism.

Ninety-five years ago, The American Legion chaired a National Flag Conference in Washington. Representatives from 68 other patriotic, fraternal, civic and military organizations joined us at Memorial Continental Hall for the purpose of drafting a code of Flag etiquette. President Warren G. Harding charged the group with an important task.

"I hope you succeed in formulating a code that will be welcomed by all Americans and that every patriotic and educational society in the Republic will commit itself to the endorsement and observance and purpose of the code that you adopt here today," Harding said.

They were enormously successful. In two days, the assembly came up with 15 rules for the proper use and care of the U.S. flag. Texas and New York made flag code instruction required curriculum in their schools. During World War II, Congress adopted the code as public law.

But still, much work needs to be done. In 1989, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that flag desecration was "free speech," despite laws in 48 states and the District of Columbia which said otherwise. In response, The American Legion has been working tirelessly to correct the flawed ruling by championing an amendment to the U.S. Constitution which would grant Congress the authority to protect Old Glory from such vile acts.

Rep. Steve Womack, R-Ark, re-introduced H.J. Res. 61, which would do just that. So would its companion measure, S.J. Res. 46, introduced by Sen. Steve Daines, R-Mont.

Past polling by the Citizens Flag Alliance indicates that most Americans want to see their flag protected. Moreover, every state legislature has appealed in writing to the U.S. Congress to pass the flag amendment and send it to the states for ratification.

The National Flag Conference made history in 1923. One of its participants was Samuel Gompers, the legendary president of the American Federation of Labor.

"To us," Gompers said, "the American flag means more than even its colors in themselves portray. It means the leadership of the democratic and humane struggle that has been carried on through all the ages.

"It is a struggle that continues to this day. And it is for this reason that we must continue to wave the flag at every opportunity."

Family First.

AMERICAN LEGION HONOR GUARD SERVE THEIR COMMUNITY WITH GREAT PRIDE

Bloomington American Legion Post 56 and Normal American Legion Post 635 together form a local Honor Guard. In the past year they have performed with great honor at over 104 funerals of departed comrades who served. In addition, the Honor Guard performed at 68 special events that to name a few include Special Olympics, Children's Discovery Museum, Memorial Day Parade, Cub Scouts Troops, Nursing Homes, Vietnam Traveling Wall, Bi-Centennial Flag raising, Veterans Day, Rotary Club, parades, flag dedication and posting, as well as presentations for various sports events.

Each year this group of over 50 men and women host a Honor Guard dinner where they recognize each member, including spouses and significant others, with a certificate of service. They are widely recognized within their community and take the time to thank each and every business personally with a certificate of appreciation for the support they provide to the Honor Guard.

USAA Tips: Military leadership skills during times of chaotic change

Content provided courtesy of USAA | By Chad Storlie

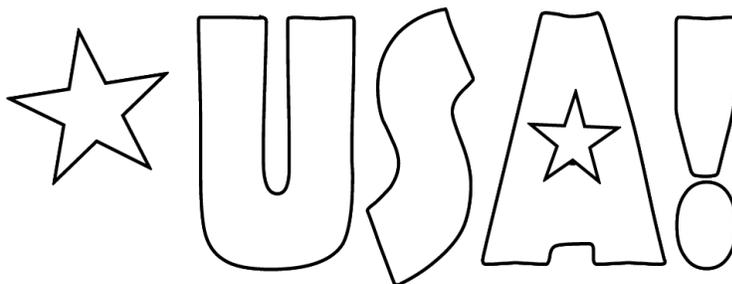

Chaos exists when there is an enormous difference between what we expect and what we see. Chaos can be a business fighting for its life, a military experience, or a parent taking care of three toddlers by themselves over a long weekend.

The important thing to realize is that just because chaos exists does not mean you have to fall victim or even feel like a victim to a chaotic environment. Military skills help leaders at all levels adapt, adjust, and overcome chaos to achieve success.

Here are 5 ways to use military leadership skills to manage chaos:

1. Lead by example in all things. Leaders must be their best when the situation is at the worst. Leadership by example is a time honored military tradition where a leader sets a positive example from the lowest level to the highest level of activities. Leadership by example is central during times of chaos because people want to see a leader who is still confident, engaged, working to solve problems, and visible for others to see and interact.
2. Focus the organization on the top 2-3 greatest dangers. Leaders and organizations need to be incredibly focused on their greatest challenges and ensure the entire organization is focused on how to respond to those dangers. During the Apollo 13 lunar mission, an accident caused a life-threatening explosion that endangered the lives of three astronauts. The NASA command group based in Houston immediately assessed they now had two primary missions: (1) keep the astronauts alive and (2) return them safely to earth. During chaos, organizations need to get to their 2-3 primary missions and no more.
3. Lead with sharing information in an open, frequent and honest approach. There is a tendency when things start to go wrong to reduce or stop sharing information. This is a natural leadership tendency because leaders do not want to be seen without all the necessary information. However, in times of chaos, leaders need to share more, be more open with information, and be visible and present during the information sharing process.
4. Use the concept of commander's intent. Commander's intent is a military mission planning principle that works well in chaos. Commander's intent is when a leader spells out precisely what success looks like and what the specific measures of success will be for the organization. Commander's intent is vital during chaotic times because people want to know what they can do to ensure success even though chaos exists. When a leader talks about what success will be, then people know what they can do to act and initiative to guide their actions towards the organization's success. Plans often fail, but commander's intent picks up when plans fail to enable action and initiative towards the final goal.
5. Focus on people. Continuing to focus on the well-being of people is an easily forgotten aspect of leadership during times of chaos. Leaders often focus solely on the problem and forget to focus on the individuals that will carry out the solution to the problem. In any organization, in any industry, and in any part of the world, it is people, not money, computers, data or resources, that are an organization's most important resources. Chaos eventually subsides because people and their leaders rise to confront, solve, and overcome the challenges.

Chaos can be an ending or a new beginning to leaders, a team, and an organization. Leaders and organizations that truly adopt and utilize military leadership skills during times of chaos will find themselves successful and better for the harrowing experience.

SWEEPING VETERANS HEALTH CARE BILL BECOMES A LAW

In a ceremony June 6, President Trump signed the John S. McCain III, Daniel K. Akaka and Samuel R. Johnson VA Maintaining Internal Systems and Strengthening Integrated Outside Networks Act, also called the VA MISSION Act, into law. The comprehensive legislation impacts how veterans receive their health care through the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). U.S. Sens. Johnny Isakson, R-Ga., and Jon Tester, D-Mont., chairman and ranking member of the Senate Committee on Veterans' Affairs, along with Rep. Phil Roe, R-Tenn., chairman of the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs, were instrumental in working with The American Legion and other veterans service organizations to get the legislation passed.

It also includes provisions to consolidate community care programs into a single, streamlined service; provides sufficient funding to extend the program through 2019; expands comprehensive assistance; strengthens ability to recruit, hire and retain quality medical personnel; and reforms the VA health-care infrastructure.

The legislative package is comprised of five titles that address major areas of deficit, including increased access to private-sector care, consolidation of community care programs, expansion of the Family Caregiver Program and the recruitment of qualified medical professionals.

Go to: <https://www.legion.org/legislative/242153/sweeping-veterans-health-care-bill-becomes-law> to read the legislative packages five titles.

Teutopolis Americanism Essay Contest

Teutopolis American Legion Post 924 sponsored the Americanism Essay Contest at the junior high level. Over fifty essays were received from grade seven. The purpose of the contest is to aid the schools of Illinois in the teaching of Americanism and good citizenship. Americanism is defined as an unflinching love of country, loyalty to its institutions and ideals; eagerness to defend it against all enemies; individual allegiance of the Flag; and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and posterity.

The 2018 contest topic was "What National Monument Means The Most To Me?".

Over fifty essays were received from grade seven and the post selected three winners. First place went to Lauren Heuerman, daughter of Greg and LuAnn Heuerman. Her selection was the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier monument in Washington DC. Lauren also placed fourth at the district 23 level. The second place winner was Alaina Helmink, daughter of Ted and Kelly Helmink. Her selection was the Belmont-Paul Women's Equality monument in Washington DC. Third place went to Leah Stone, daughter of Shane and Sara Stone. Leah's selection was the Thomas Jefferson Memorial located in Washington DC.

On April 30th a ceremony was held at the Teutopolis Junior High School. The three winners read their essays to the student and staff assembly. Each winner received a monetary award and a certificate recognizing their achievement. Post 924 thanks teacher Mrs. Jeannie Gaddis for promoting the program.

JUNE-JULY TRIVIA?

1. What were the code names for the five beachheads invaded by the Allies on D-Day, June 6, 1944?
2. What was the Allies' password on D-Day?
3. Which Landings were the subject of Saving Private Ryan?
4. Which of the U.S. service academies was the first to admit women?
5. Following the British defeat at Dunkirk in June 1940, who made the stirring broadcast vowing that "we shall fight in the fields and in the streets....we shall never surrender"?

ANSWERS:

1. Utah, Omaha, Gold, Juno and Sword.
2. "Mickey Mouse".
3. D Day.
4. The Coast Guard Academy, in July 1976.
5. British actor Norman Shelley. He sounded just like Winston Churchill and read the address so that the prime minister could deal with pressing matters of state.
